

Haier

Why Ductless?

- Versatility...can be used to supplement existing heat source
- Comfort...much quieter with better air distribution
- Security...window units are potential entry points to the home
- Efficiency...uses far less electricity than window units
- Savings...economic alternative to expensive heating fuels
- More Savings... uses far less electricity than window units
- Health...no more heavy lifting
- Control...optional programmable thermostats available
- Space...free up valuable storage space
- Appearance...maintain the home's aesthetics both inside and out
- Zoning...multiple head options
- Ventilation...allows windows to be used for natural ventilation

Why Haier?

- #1 Major Appliance Brand in the world
- Over 10% of world air conditioning sales
- Multiple models to choose from
- Sells in over 100 countries with over $33 billion in annual revenue
- Strategic partner of Mitsubishi and Hitachi
- Bought GE Appliance Division in 2016 for 5.4 billion dollars
- Represented by Emerson Swan – New England's oldest manufacturer's representative
- Headquartered in New Jersey with manufacturing in North Carolina

Frequently asked questions about Haier Mini-Split Systems

Haier Ductless Room Addition Flyer

Haier Technical Resources Center